MEMORANDUM FOR: Legislative Counsel

Jack:

The Director just gave me guidance as to what he wants on this.

With regard to Senators Dominick and Murphy, he wants a concise statement indicating that, as new members of the CIA Subcommittee, they were given a general briefing on the Agency's affairs. In the case of briefings for individual senators, he does not want to list all the subjects such as FOBs, etc. Insofar as briefings for our Subcommittees are concerned, this is all right. We should include what we actually briefed them on.

This guidance with regard to individual senators will hold for the future. In other words, you should devise some general statement to cover the recent briefing of Senator Howard Baker. The Director's objective is to avoid giving any impression that any individual senator or congressman, regardless of party affiliation, is being given preferential treatment.

If you can redo this letter and give it back to me in the course of the morning, perhaps I can get the Director to sign it before he leaves this afternoon.

L. K. White
